Terms of the Law of Scotland.	Terms of the Law of England
Advocation upon Incompetency	prohibition, or a writ for debaring any court to proceed in a cause there upon the Ground that the same falls not under the cognizance of such a court.
Advocation upon Iniquity	Certiorari, a writ issuing out of a high court for calling thither the Records in a cause in agitation before an Inferior Judicature, upon Complaint of Injustice done there.
Affected with a provision	Clogged with a proviso.
Affirmanti incumbit probatio Affirmation, bid. offer to prove.	All pleas in the Affirmative ought to be averred with hoc paratus est verificare.
Agent, procurator, or Lieger, a person who takes upon him the business of other men by whom employed Agents Warrand, or procuratory, or mandate	Attorney, attorney, or Attorney, Solicitor. A Warrant of Attorney, or Letter of Attorney.
(4) Aliends (To) dispone, convey	To alienate, Grant over, to passe
Aliment	Alimony, Maintenance, Estovers.
Aliment (To) All and Sundry	To maintain, to dist. All and Singular.
Allegance	Suggestion, Allegation (as this is a mere suggestion without any manner of Evidence)
non licet allegare contraria	Law will not allow a saying and unsaying.
Almoner called Chaplain of the Nation Act 1 Par. 1. 3.	Eleemosynary.
(3) Alms-House or Hospital	Maison de dieu, a House of God, a Spittle-house.
Alb.	Albo.
Ambages	A Round about way, a circuit or circuity in Law as a circuity of Action, a longer course of proceeding than is necessary to recover the suit.
Amercement (arbitrary) imposed on any commitor in wrong or stinting the money of the church for an offence, ~~[illegible]~~ profits of Fines and Amercements	Misericordia, ~~[illegible]~~ not so called when the offence is so called because it ought to be moderate and ~~[illegible]~~ Issues of Fines and Amerciaments.
Annexed to a Barony Annoyance Annualrent of Money	Appendant to a Manor. Nuisance. Interest.
Annualrent by Infeftment ~~[illegible]~~	~~[illegible]~~
Antiquated — Antiquity	Auncialus — ancienty.
To Annullor abrogate or Rescind, quash, defeat. Annulled (from ad and nullus) adnihilated Application to the Courts by an advocate for what ye do among ye Lieges, the Court calls To Approach or take by command of authority Apprehending or taking one fast or sure Apprize (To) or appreciate Apprizer	To abolish, defeat or abrogate by some error or exception, to vacate Annulled from the Fr. anéantir to abolish or abrogate, frustrate or brought to nothing, quashed To Attach, arrest, or take in Execution. Attachment, arrest. To release, appease. Grant by right of Extent
Apprizing (Letters of)	Extent, facias, a writ of Extent or a commission to the sheriff to value Lands or Tenements.
Arbitrator — Referee. Apprizing or Appreciation of lands Arbitration or Submission — Reference Arbitral (decreet) Arbitral (decreet) of an overman — umpirage. Argumentum ad Hominem bid. personal objection Arles or Arles-penny or impost Arrestment (Letters of) — a writ or precept of attachment of money or Goods in the hands of one who is debtor to the attachers debtor to satisfy the attacher himself. The third person or party in whose hands the money or goods are arrested — Garnishee bid. To paint. Art and part	(decreet of) Apprisement — Extent an estate by elegit Award, from the Fr. Agarder, because it is imposed on both parties to be kept and observed. Arbitrament, judgment or sentence upon arbitration Earnest (Bargain) God-penny, Earnest, Arles A writ issued by the authority of the Judges in the Nature of a requisition whereby all personal Estate of whatever kind in the hands of what other person are by the laws of Scotland, there to remain in virtue of such Arrestment till the debt or claim for which it was forbid be paid, or Security given by the debtor for paying the same, as by law upon Trial they are found guilty by partaker, patron

Terms of the Law of Scotland.	Terms of the Law of England.
Assedation, bid. Tack.	To Ascribe.
Assoils (To) Assembly (General) Assessor members of the General Assembly of the clergy, proctors	A Canonical Judge Assistant. In England, if a Judge is doubtfull or mistaken in a matter of Law, a Stander by, as Amicus curiæ, may be allowed to inform the court. Wood Inst. of the Law of England 8 page 10. The 12 judges in Chancery are the Lord Chancellor's Assistants.
Assign (To) Assignation (conventional) Assignation (a Legal) Assigny, whom one delegates any act or power any commission, Lieutenancy. Assoilzie (To) the King	To Grant or set over a Right to another, to assign over. Assignment, Transfer, Setting over, Conveyance, Transferring the Interest a man hath in any thing to another. Assignee. To cause offenders pay what is due to the King.
Assithment, called Cros or Galnes The King's Remission discharges not an Assithment	Satisfaction to the friends of a person slain, Manbote. A Recompence for Homicide or a pecuniary composition. The King's Pardon does not foreclose an appeal.
(5) Assize ~~[illegible]~~ (ordinary) Letters of diligence or a precept to summon an Assize Assize, member of Inquest	A polly Jury. A writ called Venire facias to cause a polly Jury to appear, a distringas, justices, Habeas Corpus, fieri facias.
(8) Assoilzie (To) or absolve one from a process and decern the pursuer to pay large expences to the defender	Juror. acquit or discharge the defendant and to dismiss the suit or action with exemplary costs.
To Assoilzie from a debt pursued for	Conf. quod ct. de debito predicto et de quietis et inde dic. Fac. to go without day, the defendant is dismissed the court, because there is no further day assigned for appearance.
To Assoilzie from the Instance	To discontinue a plea or process, to dismiss it, the suit to be begun afresh by a new writ.
Assoilzied or absolved Assoilzie copy, bid. copy. Assoilzie a debitoribus Avail — Value Avail (To the best) To pay and hold the best bail Ab Sandum	Acquitted. A Surety of a surety, called in France a Contfor, because he undertakes that the first is good. To the best profit and advantage. To release upon a sale of lands the equitable and most improved party (3) Ab Sandum, adjournment for further consideration.
The Lord ordinary made ab sandum to the whole Lords To take a point to Ab sandum The ordinary makes Ab sandum to himself	The Judge ordinary referred the cause to the whole court. To take it ad Referendum. Curia abisare or adbisare built, i.e. Inlands to take deliberation upon the point before Judgment be solved and on. If the major part of the Judges of the court be wanting cannot determine a cause before them, it ought to be put into this court.
Author in Rem suam A curator cannot be Authorizer rem suam (bid. Dean in Terminis) Authorities, material or in the case that most fit, an Authority out of the case or that comes not up to it	A Guardian cannot authorize the Minor in any thing relating to his own concern. Author Ages where directly seem to govern the point, to come home to it. An Authority not in point.
Bagimond's Roll Bakbond Bargain (Cons. that refers a) Bargain (yes that accepts a) Bark (bid. witnesses, pro loco & tempore)	Ragman's Roll, or Ragimund's Roll. A counterbond or counter deed. Bargainor. Bargainee.
Bailable, that may be let to Bail — or set free upon bail Bailie Bailiaries Bailies of a Burgh Barns	Bail. at common Law the Judges frequently take Bail do bono esse, that is to be allowed or disallowed upon the Approbation or Exception of the plaintiffs Attorney. However in the Interim they take a well bond or conditional Allowance, which is something analogous to the Admitting witnesses cum Nota in the Scots Law. Mainpernable. Bailiff of a liberty exempted from the sheriff of the county Bailiwick (Balliva), a liberty exempted from the sheriff Alderman.
Barns part of Gear a Baron Court — Sitta, a court Baron. Bond Be it known to all men by these present letters Behaviour as Heir Behaviour good (Surety for the) Behaviour good Benefice Vacancy of a Benefice Sits being full of an Incumbent Benefice of cure Bill, bid. petition	Children. Child's portion, filial or Child's part or Children's part = Scots Law. Know all Men by these presents, I make, ordain, etc. Doing any Act which makes one Heir, etc. Liege to the good Behaviour. Speed a Bazing Living. Avoidance of a Benefice. plenary, to receive up [illegible] a spiritual living — resignation — [illegible] [illegible]