18. Columbis columbariis / Doves and Dovecoats or Pigeon Houses. Pigeons being most pernicious Creatures to neighbouring Corns, the having of Pigeon Houses in Normandy, is allowed only upon pecuniary Fees and but one upon one Fief. So in other Places of France as Dappe. reddits any Person may have a Dovecoat who hath but somuch ground as to build it upon Coing Stod. 9. 11.

But the English and we have in some Manner copied after the Normans. For none are allowed to have Pigeon Houses in City or Country unless they have of yearly Rent to the Value of ten Quarters of Virtual without any Messe of the Dovecoat, and such an Heretor can have but one Dovecoat. Ld 12. Jan. 22. f. 6

14. Hortis pomariis / Yards Orchards. But the Yards and Orchards in several different Burgesses are not to be found an Orchard to be of a different Species from a Yard. For Synonimous Words are frequently added in Statutes &c. hortis seu cultis, and the ordinance et alia ordinationes Yards and Orchards. Yea a Dispositione of a House and Yards was found to carry with it those Pertinents to the House, and separated from it by some small Lane interjected 23 Decemb. 1702 Bruce contra Burgesses.

15. Sacrificuli Smiteries or Smithshops.

16. Braseria / Kilns for making Malt.

17. Brueria / Brew-Houses.

18. Granaria / Barns or Granary.

19. Sylvis Nemoribus Virgultis Lignis / These four Words are used to comprehend all Kind of Trees and Timber great and small.

In France and England where Wood is mostly used for fireing many Acts are made about the cutting of Woods.

20. Lapicidinis / Quarries of any Kind of Stone.

21. Lapide et calce / Stone and Lime.

22 Cum Curiis et earum exitibus / With Courts (i.e. Jurisdiction) and the Issues thereof: As Fines and other Dues. Curia and Curtis signify the same Thing vid. Gofra. Pag. 1605 Vassals under the Degree of a Baron cannot hold Courts except except they be infeft cum curiis. Mackenzie Observ. on Act 79. Par. 10. J. 2. And even then Courts simply expressed extend to Nothing criminal, no not to Bloodwits, but only to the Determination of civil Debates and Differences among the Heretors own Tenants or subject him and them in petty Differences in L. Neapcourtheads or to constitute a Baillie to judging the Heretors and Heretable Officers of Court for execution and Answers Craig Lib. 2. tit. 9. § 17. in fin. & § 18. Spelman Gloss. Tit. Curia. Stair Inst. 2. 3. 50. Curia non est nisi ubi Rex ipse vel Capitalis Justiciarius ejus pro tribunali sedet. Bract. lib. 3. tract. 2. cap. 7. Curia Regis non potest dici, nisi ubi Rex ipse cum Justiciariis suis de Banco residet. Fleta lib. 2. cap. 2. Curia Regis dicitur ubicunque fuerit Rex ipse. Curia Regis est ubi Rex ipse de Jure esse debet. Curia Regis est ubi Rex ipse cum Justiciariis suis residet. Curia Regis est ubi Rex ipse cum Justiciariis suis residet. Curia Regis est ubi Rex ipse cum Justiciariis suis resid