or executed at the head burgh of each District where he ha Lands; or if execution in that Jurisdiction where the Majo part of his Lands ly will serve for them all?

I have explained more fully in another place (infra pag. where and in what manner Inhibitions & other Letters of Dili is to be executed.

The Letters and Executions of Inhibition must, within days after publication at the head burgh of the Jurisdiction where the Inhibited party dwells, be entred either in the parti : cular Register of that District, and also where his Lands ly (if they and his Dwelling place be within Different Jurisd dictions) or in the General Register at Edinburgh act wise it is null 14 feb. 1710 Lord Gray contra Hope. Pers may in their option, Registrate Inhibitions either in the General or Special Registers. But Registration in the General Register affects all his Lands within Scotland where as Registration in the particular Register affects No

No Lands without ~~[illegible]~~ that Jurisdiction Stair lib. 4 Tit. 50 §9. 10 Tit.
§29. So that I do not see the Reason of Sir James Stuart's opinion (answers to Direct Double Tit. Inhibition) that where the Registration is appointed to be, the execution and publication should proceed. Seeing as was said before it is sufficient to Exe:
