

and allows a competent time to their Creditors to do preference Diligence for affecting their Debts or estate. For No heir, the and Inheritor can Dispose or Make any right of his predecessors estate to the prejudice of the predeceſſor's Creditors, till a full year after the predeceſſor's Death. Acl 24 Par. 1 Sect. 1 Ch. 2. was thought unreasonable that he having Year and day Debtors whether he would enter heir or Not about Disposal of the predeceſſor's estate sooner to the prejudice of the predictors. But the heir may after Elapsing of a year from the predeceſſor's death effectually dispose to the prejudice of him of the Decedate who have Not secured themselves by a complete Disposal only Indated Diligence 17 June 1712 Recd of Chatton controversy of Hadden v. id. Signa pag. 1445. Seeing it appears the Rubric & an Statutory part of this Law which Disables a heir to Dispose of his predeceſſor's estate within a Year of his death to the prejudice of his predeceſſor's Creditors, that it is only against the apparent heir & Creditors: Liaritier if the apparent heir may Dispose for the last faction of any of his father's Creditors within the Year & Cogland v. id. Because this point was not Decided before the Ord. November 1686 Ballantine contra Dundas of Bonistoun but Not determined.

The heire active title of heirs is Much Ordinarily Intituled by a Retour or Infeſſment as Heirs. Whether a Service Not done be a sufficient active title, Cannot be gaſtered from what the Lord Stair says about it. For he afforts in one place 3 Jit. 5 S. 5 Ver. So Much for the being that it is, and in the place (ibid 5 4) That it is Not. A Blather and Scifon of and do to a Man and his heirs, And a Retour of one forwrd heir to the man with a precept out of the Planchery charging the grantee foreſaid Blather and heir to the predeceſſor to fulfil the heir the Retour, that Not sustained without hisſon to purſue a Remainder. Who was Author of the predeceſſor's Right, and his tenants; albeit the purſuer purſued thro' the de-ceder's fault who was charged as is said, to give it him 20 Jan 1627 L. Gouſh contra L. Gladdis Miln vid pyp. pag.

The Heirs active title Must be produced and Repealed in every process at his instance plait ibid. 5 5 2. Before the Decree being obtained against one as Heir to his father of the price of land due to the father by the obtainer of the service that Decree was Not sustained as a sufficient Instruction of heirs active title in an action of Warrant rec of the land against the father 11 feb. 1629 Stuart contra Wilfion

1448.

Sect. I.
Active Interest of heirs Inſtitute.
Heirs Male and Heir of tailzie and provision, are intituled to No more than the ſubject provided to them, or what is accessory thereto.
This is a Man's right to land or annualrent by intent in favour of himſelf and his heirs Male or heir of tailzie or provision, any Appropriations adjudications, Rerouſed lands or other Security of the land lands or annual rents required by him to himſelf and his heirs, or his heirs whatſoever, whether before or after Infeſſment in favour of the ſpecial Heir afforeſaid will become to that ſpecial heir to whom the ſaid lands or annualrents were provided. Starb. 6 6 3 Jit. 5 S. 12. Because it is Not pruſumable that a Man would give theſe lands or annualrents to one, and the rights of them to another, thereby to let them by the one, and to let his ſpecial heir ſuppreſſed, and the heir whatſoever, or he is Not ſpecially Designated, or occinarily ſignify, heir of line, who are heirs Generally, yet in the larger Acceſſation of property, Not only heirs General, but Caſe 5 Generally, whether of line, Male, tailzie or provision, as when one obiects himſelf and his heirs whatſoever, thereby all kinds of heirs in their order are Underſtood And sometimes by him whatſoever & ſpecial Heir are Mainly Intituled: As when in the case aforefaid the obligation Relates to lands or other provided to ſuch ſpecial heirs. But the Lord Stair (ibid) is Not Clear, how ſpecial Heir can be ſerved in which Subsequent Rights Conceive in favour of heirs & whatſoever.
Obligations in favour of heirs of tailzie and Provision, are always Effectual againſt the heir of line; for Relation to whom the heirs of tailzie and provision are Considered as Strangers or Creditors. 28 January 1668 Birney contra Birney 3 feb.
1674 Drummond contra Drummond Starb. 5 5 5. Proces was Sustained at the Inſtance of an heir Male againſt the heir of line for Declaring that the predeceſſor had right to an Appropriation upon another Estate, and that the Appropriation was affected before the purſuer's Relief of the predeceſſor's debt, altho' the debt was Not obſted or produc'd: In respect no Conſtraint of payment was obſted againſt the Lineal heir 2 feb. 1710 E. Landdale contra Lord Yester. The heir of line stands alſo liable to fulfill obligations in favour of heirs of Provision 2 feb. 1713 Balfour contra Erig.

Proces is Sustained at the Inſtance of the preſumptive heir of a Marriage againſt the father in his own time to fulfill the ſpecial obligations in their mothers Contract, or to purſue any duty already done by him to their property, the heire contra Not be Actually heirs to their father which he is alive;
But