

of strange words. But a Charm in the Common Language signifies these or any other Persecutions Retained by the Devils Upon Using whereof by Ditcher, he is to work mischief according to his agreement with the 1st Some Accomplish their End by Sacrificing to the Devil some Living Creature Bernard ibid. chap. 13. As Paul attempted Mimb. 23. And the Devil when all together want worship, had been Contented to Accept the Offerings of Nails. 2<sup>d</sup> They Kiss Storms and Thunder, Throwing Flint Stones behind their back toward the west, or sand taken out of a brook into the Air, or by dipping a Broom in water, and Sprinkling that water into the Air, or by stirring with the finger piss or water powdered into a little Dish, or by boiling in a pot the bristles of a Hog, and the like Proprieties. Which are watch words to the Devil and Entertainments for the Imagination of witches probably Intended to persuade the Devil that they themselves do those strange things, Hon. More Method toward. Pl. ibid. cap. 3. 3<sup>d</sup> Some are possessed by their Malignant Look Tadic. Triumph. part 2 Relat. 7 Boulton Hist. of Witchcraft Vol. 2 chap. trial of Bridget Bishop and Elizabeth How in later times such are said to have in appearance two heads or appear in one or both of their Eyes, as one of those Marked by the Devil Distinguisheth his Slaves by, Dolis lb. 3. part 2 Quast 4 Sect. 3. Others perform Diabolical Acts, by their Voice, as by Muttering Mumbling and whispering, or by 19—29. Or by Audible words whereof some are barons and Unintelligible; others plain and known as the Names of the persons in the trinity, or of the Virgin Mary whom they call our Lady, and sentences of Scriptures; some again are cursing and Imprecation or threatening; other are pronounced in the form of praising and Commending, as this is a good horse, I love him Dolis ibid. Thed. 1. Bernard Guido to give fury more Book 2 Chap. 13. The Deceasing Charm to persons or other Creatures this way, is common turned fore speaking them 13 November, 1629 Catharin ad wale. It was observed at the Execution of a suspected witch that if she did but bite her Throat off, the job for her proposed to be bewitched, were bitten on the Arms and wrists and produced the Marks thereof before the Magistrate and a last prospect, Increase Mathews account of Mass England with the some Bewitch persons by touching with the hand or finger only Dolis ibid. Romig. Demonolat. lb. 1. cap. 3. Bernard ibid. some Bewitch persons by kissing them Sadducism. Triumph. part 2 Relat. 7. Other Diabolical Operations performed by the Breath as Yauifedy counts of a Wo man with help by breathing on her Bernard ibid. chap. 5. Witchcraft wrought by a Speedy Locking or by the Voice or by a touch or the breath &c. is commonly termed Magical fascination. 4th Some obtain the persons they Intend from the Devil by getting from the person they Intend to mischief any thing belonging to them, as a Glove or part of their Garment, or Hair or Excrement, or by throwing to them such a powder Ointment or by applying Strawberries bread floops or Drink Bernard ibid. Sadducism Triumph part 2 Relat. 2. 3. 4. R. Boulton Hist. of witchcraft Vol. 1 chap. 3. cap. 6 page 190. 191. 192. 194. Others execute their Intentions, by personal Compositions drawn out of the Bowels of Murdered Infants, or by Disjoining and powdering dead Bodies, and Mixing the same with other things furnished by the Devil 25 January, 1592. and Sampson 23 July 1608. Patrickla word who took both them to give Uncommon poisons which are ad Ed. by Romig. ad by Medicines, Romig. ibid. cap. 2. He knowing better the Nature and properties of those Medicines and consequently how to use the power of poisoning they made use of. Some bewitching and poisoning is wrought together bewitching, as we may gather from both the Greek and Latin Names of a witch paqumetpa, bewitching 5th Some have put their Devilish designs in Execution by Inchanting Herbs, great and Gallions, by grass Root, or by Moon Juice, with their foot hand and Nails. 7th Witch made pictures of Wax, Clay or Plowdy, they