 Bench is an Act of Ma. did not only to his person but also to thousands. About the King's person it is said at all times, the persons of his Judges aforesaid are not other way to be selected than in the Execution of their employments. The Reason of the Difference is because the King is always Executing his great office; either by himself or his Judges, all acts of Justice Running still in his Name, and his Commission is not to be or more any other Court, but only to be a part of the King's
