

he was found dead next Morning, or her leaving and her professing her Child upon the Rock in the Night time when it was found dead next Morning by a certain Colovant to find the Child from its death and suffocation 23 July 1722 Holm M.
 Jan. You, it was sustained relevant to justify the pain of death Si. against a Mistress that her apprehension of about 12 years of age boarded in her house falling sick then was when sick carried out by her with the assistance of her Menplies and laid in the street exposed to hunger and cold the Appointed died that same Night. That it was found relevant to her for an arbitrary punishment, that the said Apprehension was carried out of her house and laid upon the street 10 April 1699 Elizabeth Key. If an Infant exposed in a place of public Resort, to the end that the public Magistrate or some tender hearted Char. than might take it up, to go to its Maintenance, they were to pay for it, as was for any Child to its Relief, the exposure is held to be an arbitrary punishment. C. Bar. pro. v. the n. 10th 11. Non qua ter. Attonis oronimul or Cor. pro. Aligis, non in quoniam ter. agunt. And Vorseus in Alitico, it is in forma Alion by for the immediate and necessary consequence, the other exposing an Infant is punishable. Si. bituruly, the other found and taken up a Child and sent C. 2 C. 20 Infant. Exposed Nov. 15. 7 cap. 1 July. 8. lar. 8. fina. C. quod. 8. 3 n. 7 Bar. pro.
 the. n. 15 4. 1699. Which punishment may be aggravated or Mitigated according as the parties in question appear to be more or less criminal from the Nature of the place where the Child was found, or a Child found dead a Woman for Exposing her living Child naked and came into the World among the growing pain of solely after the Birth, was judged to be whipped and then to be carried to the Correction house to labor there till she was of by the Magist. treated 20th 21st comb. 1703 Mary Graham. Where the parents of an exposed Child that is taken up alive, are not to be wholly the Maintaining and bringing up that Child it incumbent upon the Supreme Magistrate to determine whom

The Doctor commonly holds that the Destroying a living Child in the Mother's Belly by such means as to put it into the world is punishable by death: and that the procuring Miscarriage of an Infant's Embryo is the same as to put an arbitrary punishment. C. 39. Pro. v. the n. 10th 11. Non qua ter. Attonis oronimul or Cor. pro. Aligis, non in quoniam ter. agunt. And Vorseus in Alitico, it is in forma Alion by for the immediate and necessary consequence, the other exposing an Infant is punishable. Si. bituruly, the other found and taken up a Child and sent C. 2 C. 20 Infant. Exposed Nov. 15. 7 cap. 1 July. 8. lar. 8. fina. C. quod. 8. 3 n. 7 Bar. pro. the. n. 15 4. 1699. Which punishment may be aggravated or Mitigated according as the parties in question appear to be more or less criminal from the Nature of the place where the Child was found, or a Child found dead a Woman for Exposing her living Child naked and came into the World among the growing pain of solely after the Birth, was judged to be whipped and then to be carried to the Correction house to labor there till she was of by the Magist. treated 20th 21st comb. 1703 Mary Graham. Where the parents of an exposed Child that is taken up alive, are not to be wholly the Maintaining and bringing up that Child it incumbent upon the Supreme Magistrate to determine whom who in the Crime of Exposing a Child is Compotent to be tried. Bar. pro. the. n. 27.

The Doctor commonly holds that the Destroying a living Child in the Mother's Belly by such means as to put it into the world is punishable by death: and that the procuring Miscarriage of an Infant's Embryo is the same as to put an arbitrary punishment. C. 39. Pro. v. the n. 10th 11. Non qua ter. Attonis oronimul or Cor. pro. Aligis, non in quoniam ter. agunt. And Vorseus in Alitico, it is in forma Alion by for the immediate and necessary consequence, the other exposing an Infant is punishable. Si. bituruly, the other found and taken up a Child and sent C. 2 C. 20 Infant. Exposed Nov. 15. 7 cap. 1 July. 8. lar. 8. fina. C. quod. 8. 3 n. 7 Bar. pro. the. n. 15 4. 1699. Which punishment may be aggravated or Mitigated according as the parties in question appear to be more or less criminal from the Nature of the place where the Child was found, or a Child found dead a Woman for Exposing her living Child naked and came into the World among the growing pain of solely after the Birth, was judged to be whipped and then to be carried to the Correction house to labor there till she was of by the Magist. treated 20th 21st comb. 1703 Mary Graham. Where the parents of an exposed Child that is taken up alive, are not to be wholly the Maintaining and bringing up that Child it incumbent upon the Supreme Magistrate to determine whom

The Doctor commonly holds that the Destroying a living Child in the Mother's Belly by such means as to put it into the world is punishable by death: and that the procuring Miscarriage of an Infant's Embryo is the same as to put an arbitrary punishment. C. 39. Pro. v. the n. 10th 11. Non qua ter. Attonis oronimul or Cor. pro. Aligis, non in quoniam ter. agunt. And Vorseus in Alitico, it is in forma Alion by for the immediate and necessary consequence, the other exposing an Infant is punishable. Si. bituruly, the other found and taken up a Child and sent C. 2 C. 20 Infant. Exposed Nov. 15. 7 cap. 1 July. 8. lar. 8. fina. C. quod. 8. 3 n. 7 Bar. pro. the. n. 15 4. 1699. Which punishment may be aggravated or Mitigated according as the parties in question appear to be more or less criminal from the Nature of the place where the Child was found, or a Child found dead a Woman for Exposing her living Child naked and came into the World among the growing pain of solely after the Birth, was judged to be whipped and then to be carried to the Correction house to labor there till she was of by the Magist. treated 20th 21st comb. 1703 Mary Graham. Where the parents of an exposed Child that is taken up alive, are not to be wholly the Maintaining and bringing up that Child it incumbent upon the Supreme Magistrate to determine whom