Forms of the Law of Scotland.	Forms of the Law of England.
Coalhors	coal-Hovers.
coalhugh	Coal-pit or coal-mine.
Cogitandum	Quare.
Cognition,	Cognizance, conusance, an Audience or Hearing of a matter judicially, as it comes within the Jurisdiction of this court.
Cognosce (to) upon,	Take cognizance of.
To Collate	To put in Holchpot or bring into Hotch-pot.
Collation, collatio bonorum, whereby a child in order to get an equal Childs part with the rest doth cast in and communicate with them what he formerly received from the Father; or whereby an Heir to partake of his Fathers moveables allows the younger Children to share equally with him in the Heritage, so as every Child without exception draws an equal share out of the whole stead.	Hotchpot as to put her part in Holchpot.
Colledge of Justice	Inns of court, Faculties of the Law.
Collector exact (To)	To Levy.
Collusion or a deceitful concert or Agreement betwixt persons to another's prejudice	Cabin, underhand Agreement, combination & confederacy Faint-pleader is a fraudulent fullse or collusory manner of pleading to the deceit of a third person. Fair-pleader, beau-pleader, or not-pleading fairly, faint-pleader
Colluders	Abettors
Commissaries of Edinburgh are equal to	Judges of the prerogative courts of the Archbishops of Canterbury & York
Commissaries (Inferior) answer to	Judges of Chancellors in England.
Commissary	Official or he who holds Bishops courts, diocesan Chancellor
Commissary court	Consistory court, Christian officialty.
Commissariot or district or bishop of a commissary	Authority, power, warrant given by a Bishop to his Attorney.
Commission, to an Agent or expedition	Dedimus potestatem.
Commission or Delegation for the speeding of some Court to examine parties or witnesses	Judge
Commission (offence by) misdoing or doing what should not be done	Misprisance, or Malfeasance. Trespass.
Commission to Examine parties or witness to report a commission	To Return a commission to bring it up.
Commitment (warrant of) to prison	Impeachment, in commission Mittimus, or a precept in writing under the hand & seal of a Justice of peace directed to the Gaoler for the receiving & safe keeping of an offender untill he is delivered by Law
Commonty (because it is common to many a proselyte that a man hath in the land of another	Common. appropriare communiam, to disCommon,
bid. pasturage common; to inclose or separate a parcel of land that was before open common	Approvement is where a man hath Common in the Lords wast, and the Lord makes an Inclosure of part of the wast for himself, having sufficient Common with Egress and Regress for the Commoners.
one who hath right to share	Commoner.
in the profit of another's land,
Communing a conference between two or more without coming to agreement about some affair	Communication.
To compear	To appear.
To compear for his Interest bid. Interest	Appearance and Compearance for one's Interest	Imparling.
not compearing in court at a day appointed	Default, or non-appearance in court at a day assigned
Compensation, which is a Reckoning between creditor and debtor of what is due to each other: or where Something therefore ceases to be due, because the creditor owes to the debtor a thing of the same Kind and Value	Stoppage of Payment.
Compesint bid. cognition
Compesint and owned	That which might have been and was not pleaded to the action. One cannot plead a Thing afterwards which he might have pleaded at first.
Complainer (bid pursuers)	Complainant plaintiff

Forms of the Law of Scotland.	Forms of the Law of England.	75.
Complaint (bid. Libel)	Querela, plaint.
composition	Accord.
composition paid or performed	Accord with Satisfaction.
Composition Deed to a purchaser of Lands receiving a purchaser as his Vassal	A Fine or Alienation.
Compt and Reckoning (Summons of)	A writ of Account. compulo.
Compt and Reckoning (Action of)	Action of Account.
Compulsitor	Letters Compulsory.
(7) Concurrence of circumstances	combination of circumstances.
Concurrence of a magistrate in the Execution of a caption	A publick officers obedience to a writ of Assistance.
Concurrence when called by another in a fault to him from	Joyning in aid.
Concurrence or joining of two in a suit or action against another,	A Joinder.
Condescend (to)	To assign, show, set forth. point out or point of as to assign Error, to show where it is committed. To assign false Judgment, to declare how and where the Judgment is unjust. To assign the cause, to show the cause or reason thereof. To assign waste, to show wherein especially the waste is committed.
Condition or provision	condition or provisoe.
Condition implyed	condition in Law.
Condition sine qua non	A condition, Accident, or circumstance without which a Thing cannot be.
Conductor	Hirer.
Confess'd (To hold as)	To take pro confesso.
Confirm (to) a Testament	To probe a will.
Confirmation of a Testament made by one deceas'd	probate of a Testament or will, i. e. The Exhibiting and probing it before the Ecclesiastical Judge, Delegated by the Bishop: That is, probing that the will exhibited is the last will and Testament of the Deceas'd. when a person is Dead and composition of right for the Executorship or Administratorship, he that is concern'd enters a caveat in the Spiritual court, to prevent or admonish others from intermeddling, at least till he be heard.
a confirmed Testament dative (bid. Dative)	Administration.
Confusion or consolidation	Extinguishment, merger, unity of possession. Confusion extinguishment is a perpetual, and Suspension a temporary stop of one's Right. If one be indebted to another, makes his executor his debtor, and dies, the debt is extinct, and the action ceases.
conjunct	Joint, Concurrent.
conjunct fiars (bid. Liferent to a wife)	Joint-Tenancy, Tenancy in common, infra.
Conjunct Friars	Joint-Tenants. The English distinguish Joint Tenants from Tenants in Common thus: Joint Tenants are properly those who hold any Lands or Tenements by force of the same Title for their whole and undivided part, as Heirs parceners. Tenants in Common are they who hold the same Thing by different Titles or by one Title and their Rights are distinct, i. e. if one parcener aliene or gives his right to a Stranger, the Stranger and the rest are Tenants in Common: Tho' the rest among themselves enjoy their former Proportion of Joint Tenants.
Conjunct persons	privies in Blood.
Conquest, Feudum novum	purchase, or an Estate of purchase which one has got by his own Labour and Industry.
conquest	purchased
Consignees (to) of	consigned to, or makes over his goods any Thing consigned
Consignatory	a depositing of money.
Consignation of money &c.
Consolidation confusion	unity of possession, merger, where a Lease or Estate in Lands is drown'd in a greater. Extinguishment merger or drowned in.
consolidate with	The principal
Consultus, or who grants commission to another to act for him	Means, Accident.
Continentia causa

(7) concealment of high Treason — Misprision of high Treason.