

Terms of the Law of Scotland.

Terms of the Law of England.

Disinheriting Exheredation	Disinheritance
Dispone (To)	To Alien, Dispose, grant over, to pass.
Disponer	Alienor, conveyancer
He to whom a disposition is made	Alienor, Disponent
Disposition	Adopt, or conveyance
Disposition of any corporeal Thing	Feoffment perfected by Entry of Seisin & possession
Disposition for ever completed by Seisin & possession	Feoffment
Disponer thereof	Feoffor, Feoffalor
Receiver of such a Right	Feoffee
Disposition of Things incorporeal or a Right	Grant, or Concession
Disposition by the King or Bodies publick	Grantor
Disponer thereof	Grantor, Disponer
Receiver of such a Right	Grantee, Disponent
To Respond such Things	To Respond
To Dispose or take away possession of any thing	To Dispossess
Dispossession or put out of possession (vid. Inhabitor)	Dispossession, from the Feoffee to remove possession with or without force.
One dispossession'd	Disposses
He or she that turns another out of possession	Dispossor, or Dispossessor
Dispossing	Dispossession with or without force & fact
Recent dispossession and in time of war	Dispossession for which there has a deed called Affize of Robt. Dispossession, or an Affize of fresh force.
One dispossessioning the same person a second Time	Redispossession, post-dispossession
Dispossessioning one who had turned another out of possession	Dispossession upon dispossession
Withholding Lands or Tenements by Force from the Right owner, who had was never in possession	Dispossession
Distraint (To) or poid	To distress, or Distraint
Distress (To) & cautioner	To call upon a surety, or make a demand for payment
Division of Lands belonging to several persons jointly	Partially, or partly from the French pour part
Division of a Rent etc. in parts according as the Land out of which it issues is divided	Partially, or partly from the French pour part
Division (a Buis of)	Partially, or partly from the French pour part
Debot	Green Tuff for cobbling Houses &c.
Dolo, Dolo malis,	Deceit, Evil Intention, Knavery, Fraud, Cozenage
Dolo, Dolo mala	Damage without Fraud
Dolo, Dolo bona	A Stratagem
Dominium directum	The very property or domain
Donatory	Donor
Donation	Gift, Donative
The maker of a donation	Donor
Dowry	Endowed
Dowry (A)	Dowry, Exemplification

The Law of Scotland is in common by several persons which is by partition allotted to any one of them

Terms of the Law of Scotland.

Terms of the Law of England.

Dobcator	perjuror, Hoaxer
Draw (To) bank a diligences ad firm causam	To give a writ a retroactive Effect, to give it from the day of the
as an Adjuration for the bygone & only of an Infeftment of admittent
Duple or the Defenders Answer to the pursuers Reply	Rejoinder or the Defendants Answer to the plaintiffs Application
Duple (to)	To Rejoinder
E
Effects to Goods enough to discharge the Debtor's debts	Effects, from the Fe. Assize Salis.
Effectual (To be) take place or Effect to be of force	To Enure or Inure from Fe & ure custom, to work to be attended with Effect, as his pardon will inure to the benefit of the other. This concludes perjurors conform, proportionable
Efforing	Forcible Entry, Disfranchisement, Dissolving by force, Ejectment
Ejection casting out of his Lands to possession	Ejection, Quare & sic infra Terminum
Ejector, one that casts forth another by force & violence	Ejector, Disfranchisement, Dissolving by force, Disfranchisement
Eik	Admission
Elitor	Solicitor, procurator
Elido (To) bid. To Evacuate	To Defeat, Disappoint
Emancipated	Set at liberty from under the Father's Jurisdiction by Emancipation
Emphyteusis	An Emphyteutical lease, a lease for perpetuity
Emphyteuta	A perpetual Lease
Empyon	Swearing
Enorm	Exceeding, irregular
Entry of a basal	Admittance of a Tenant
Entry of a singular Successor to Lands as basal to the Superior	Admittance upon Surrender
Entry of an Heir to Lands as basal in place of his Decedent's predecessor	Admittance by Descent
Entry and Issue of a Fark	The beginning to End or Determination of a Lease, or term, onely or obelty
Equality	Parity
Equivalent	Equivalent
Error Calculi	Error of computation
Error Ca. Summons of Jaggant Assize	a writ of Attaint
Error or over sight in Law proceedings	Eschews, from the Fe. Jay fails I have done amply
Especially or contract of marriage	Affiance, the plighting of troth between a man and a woman, using an instrument of marriage
Esse, or Dale non concessio (vid. Dale etc.)	Esse that is it will
Evacuate (To) ones Right (vid. To 220)	To abate ones Right
Eviction	a writ of Recovery, obtaining any thing by Judgment or legal title
Evictor, or writ	Eviction
Evictor upon Record, vid. confiteo
Evicto (To)	To Abate
Excomber	Exchanges of one Thing for another

The Law of Scotland is in common by several persons which is by partition allotted to any one of them